

AGHĒN

Mat

Aghēn (mats) in this grouping are made from raffia, a fibre that comes from the raffia palm. These are usually spread over a raised mud platform and used as a bed for sleeping or by children to sit on during moonlight tales or may have had ceremonial functions.

