

ẸKPOKI

Box

Ẹkpoki (box) were often made by the Isekpokin from leather, however the Igun Ẹronmwon made some from bronze. They would have been used to carry precious and important objects to the Oba. They are frequently seen depicted on relief plaques and altar tableaus being held by members of the royal court.

