

IFẸNMWE

Arrow

Ifẹnmwe (arrows) were usually used alongside Uhambo and Ẹkpede. Ifẹnmwe were part of the weaponry used for hunting animals and during warfare. The shaft was a product of the Igbesamwan guild, and the tips were made by the Igun-Ematon. Ifẹnmwe tips could be dipped in poison made by the Ilobi, who still continue to make toxic substances.

