

EBẸN

Ceremonial Sword

Ebẹn are often described as swords, however they are used more like sceptres. During ceremonies titled chiefs would hold them or throw them during dances, and in doing so they pay homage to the Oba at these public events. It is forbidden for Ebẹn to touch the ground.

