

ELUBASE/ISEVBERE

Anklet

Elubase are a type of Eguen, an anklet which has integral rattles. The rattle pellet is made from fibre originating from the Urua palm. According to oral tradition, Eguen anklets were introduced into Benin by Ogiso Ere in the tenth century. Elubase are worn by children as a way to hear their movements.

